SENATE BILL

No. 1737

Introduced by Senator Figueroa

February 24, 2006

An act to add Chapter 23.5 (commencing with Section 22730) to Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to consumer rebates.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1737, as amended, Figueroa. Consumer rebates.

Existing law regulates various business activities and practices.

This bill would impose certain requirements on companies and retailers that offer consumer rebates, including that a company allow a minimum of 30 days for a consumer to submit a rebate request. The bill would require a company to mail-a the rebate check transmit the rebate funds, or fulfill the terms of the rebate within a specified time period. The bill would specify the information that may be required from a consumer by a company that offers a rebate. The bill would exempt from its provisions rebates offered by a gas or electric corporation or a local publicly owned electric utility through its energy program as well as consumer rebates for less than $10. The bill's provisions would become operative on July 1, 2007.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 23.5 (commencing with Section 22730) is added to Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 23.5. CONSUMER REBATES

22730. As used in this chapter, “consumer rebate” means an offer to provide cash, credit, or credit towards future purchases, that is offered to consumers who acquire or purchase a specified product or service and that is conditioned upon the consumer submitting a request for redemption after satisfying the terms and conditions of the offer. The term shall not include any discount from the purchase price that is taken at the time of purchase, any discount, cash, credit, or credit towards a future purchase that is automatically provided to a consumer without the need to submit a request for redemption, or any refund that may be given to a consumer in accordance with a company’s return, guarantee, adjustment, or warranty policies, or any company’s frequent shopper customer reward program.

22731. As used in this chapter, “company” means the company or entity that is funding the consumer rebate.

22732. (a) A company shall not require a consumer to provide more than the following as proof of purchase for purposes of redeeming a consumer rebate:

(1) A receipt for the purchase of the product or services.

(2) A unique identifier of purchase such as a product serial number, universal product code, packing slip, or packaging element ~~that is clearly and conspicuously marked as the necessary proof of purchase for the rebate offer.~~ element.

(3) The consumer’s name.

(4) The consumer’s address.

(5) The consumer’s telephone number.

(6) The consumer’s membership number, if applicable.

(7) The consumer’s signature.

(8) ~~In the event that~~ If the eligibility for the consumer rebate is triggered by an electronic transaction, a valid proof of the electronic transaction.

1 (b) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), a copy of
2 the receipt shall be sufficient unless the consumer is provided
3 with a duplicate original receipt for each product associated with 4 a rebate, in which case the duplicate original may be required.

5 (c) If the consumer rebate offer is contingent upon ownership
6 or purchase of another product or service, a company may, in 7 addition to the information permitted to be requested under
8 subdivision (a), request reasonable proof of ownership or 9 purchase of the other product or service.

10 (d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a company has the right
11 to reject a consumer rebate claim or to request reasonable
12 additional documentation to verify a claim if it has reason to 13 believe that the individual consumer submitting the rebate
14 request is attempting to commit fraud, has already received the 15 offered rebate, or that the proof of purchase is not from a
16 legitimate company product or service.

17 22733. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a consumer
18 rebate offer shall conspicuously disclose a telephone number on 19 the rebate form that a consumer may call to check the status of 20 his or her rebate request.

21 (b) For purchases of a company's product that occur over a
22 Web site operated or maintained by that company, a Web site or 23 other electronic means may be provided instead of the telephone
24 number to check the status of his or her rebate request.

25 22734. A company that offers a consumer rebate shall allow 26 a minimum of 30 days from the date the consumer purchases the 27 product, or becomes eligible for the rebate pursuant to 28 subdivision (b) of Section 22735, for the consumer to submit the 29 rebate request.

30 22735. (a) A company shall mail the rebate check or transmit
31 the rebate funds to the consumer or fulfill the terms of the rebate
32 offer no later than 60 days from either of the following events as 33 applicable:

34 (1) Upon receipt of a consumer rebate request meeting the
35 terms and conditions of the rebate offer, to the extent permitted
36 by this chapter and as disclosed at the time of purchase.

37 (2) If the consumer rebate offer is conditioned upon a
38 consumer staying with a service for a minimum length of time,
39 then upon completion of this term of the rebate offer and receipt
40 of a rebate request meeting the terms and conditions for the

1 rebate to the extent permitted by this chapter and as disclosed at 2 the time of purchase.

3 (b) If a company is unable to mail the rebate check to the 4 consumer within the ~~same number of days provided to the~~
5 ~~consumer to submit the rebate~~ time required in subdivision (a),
6 the company shall provide notice to the consumer.

7 22736. (a) A company offering a consumer rebate shall not
8 require personal information other than the consumer's name,
9 address, telephone number, membership number, if applicable,
10 and signature.

11 (b) A company may require, instead of a telephone number, a
12 consumer's e-mail address with respect to products purchased
13 over the Internet, Internet-based services, or Internet rebate
14 redemptions.

15 22737. (a) A company offering a consumer rebate shall 16 provide the rebate redemption form directly with the product, or 17 at the same location and at the same time that the consumer
18 purchases the product.

19 (b) A company that does not provide rebate forms directly
20 with its product may comply with this section by ~~supplying the~~ 21 ~~retailer with either~~ doing one of the following:

22 (1) ~~A Supplying the retailer with a~~ sufficient quantity of rebate
23 redemption forms based on reasonably anticipated sales.

24 (2) ~~The Supplying the retailer with the~~ means to create a
25 rebate redemption form at the time and place of sale.

26 (3) Providing consumers with an Internet Web site address
27 where a form may be downloaded. However, at the consumer's
28 request, a hard copy of the form shall still be available at the 29 same location and at the same time that the consumer purchases
30 the product.

31 (c) For purposes of Internet sales, a generally accessible
32 company Web page, including a rebate form thereon, shall
33 comply with this section. For purposes of telephone sales,
34 directing consumers to a generally accessible company Web
35 page, including the rebate form, and, upon request, sending the 36 rebate form via the consumer's choice of regular or electronic
37 mail or telecopy shall comply with this section.

38 (d) A company that complies with this chapter shall not be
39 held liable if a retailer extending the rebate on the company's 40 behalf does not provide the consumer with the rebate form.

1     ~~22738. The rebate shall be in the form of a check that is~~
2     ~~payable upon demand and drawn on a bank.~~

3     ~~22739.~~

4     22738. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to either of 5     the following:

6     (a) Rebates and rebate programs that are offered by gas or 7     electric corporations through their energy programs under the 8     jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission.

9     (b) Rebates and rebate programs that are offered by local 10    publicly owned electric utilities, as defined in Section 9604 of the 11    Public Utilities Code, through their energy programs funded
12    pursuant to Section 385 of the Public Utilities Code.

13    (c) A consumer rebate for less than ten dollars ($10).

14    ~~22740.~~

15    22739. This chapter shall become operative on July 1, 2007.
16    Nothing in this chapter shall impose on any manufacturer any
17    obligation to recall any product or service offering consumer
18    rebates made available to retail sales outlets or consumers prior
19    to the operative date of this chapter. Any rebate offer in effect 20    prior to the operative date of this chapter shall be deemed to be in 21    compliance with this chapter.
